

filous, How Hard I Try (feat. James Hersey)

I'm holding on
To many things past
To anything that's Gonna change my memories back

I'm holding on
To everyone good
To everything that's Ever been the way that it should

I'm holding on
To things you said
Before you forgot what
This love really meant to you
The words that I sent to you
Never got into you
No matter how hard I tried
