

Fink, Too Late

You are
You are
You are
In charge
In contrary
Inside
But outside, it's too cold, I'm too stoned
And it's too late to start again
It's too late to start again

It's too late /6x

In the end, the end, the end
Is closer than you think, inside
But outside, it's all well-dressed guesswork
And it's too late to start again
It's too late to start again

It's too late /4x

Tonight, tonight, tonight
It's all that we know, inside
But outside, there's no lights, there's no rider, no aftershow
And it's too late to start again
