FINNEAS, Another Year

It never snows in L.A. You'd never know it was a holiday I don't believe that Jesus Christ was born to save me That's an awful lot of pressure for a baby

But here we are again
With fmily or frineds
Soem extra time to spend
And i am not mad about it
Don't waste dime on me
Just want your company
Beside a Christmas tree
If the dog allows it

Hurry home, please I don't belong wihout you Your ice-cold feet Write all my sngs about you I love you more and more each day Can't find poetic ways to say "I hope it lasts another year"
