

Firewind, Dreamchaser

There comes the time
When the past is forgotten
Times have changed
And it's all for real
Mind your anger
A lesson taught here
Just take a look around
And do what you feel

Sense your mind
Can you name it as a colour
Red for danger, white for sight
It could be true
You're looking for another
Where you're at boy
It just ain't right

Sight, feel the temptation
High, no aggravation, no lie
Take the path, walk the line

Be a dream chaser
Sheer racer
Steam raiser
Be a dream chaser
Head out to fly

Hey, are you just
Another face in the crowd
With nothing to give
All you do is hang around
Don't you want a new toy
A new sensation?
Just give in the play
The price you have to pay

Be a dream chaser
Head out to fly
