

Firewind, The Forgotten Memory

A volunteer, onto this field
No guarantee, death will yield
A conflict has started to conquer us all
Rise above or mankind will fall

The bullets will rain
Thou shall not kill
War, Earth's bloody stain

Memories, of our childhood days
Drowns me witnessing youth today
Boundaries of our motherland
No longer there, no longer there

Nuclear weapons against
A blessed kingdom
Demolishes the history
Concrete jungles they've
Built are insecure
Will the machines claim again?

The bullets will rain
Thou shall not kill
War, Earth's bloody stain

Memories, of our childhood days
Drowns me witnessing youth today
Boundaries of our motherland
No longer there, no longer there
