

First Blood, Drown

The flood gates thrown wide open, the fear SWEEPS YOU AWAY
Undertow pulling you, all hope DRAINS AWAY
Overwhelmed in a sea of suffering
One of the worst conceivable ways to fucking die
Liquid consumes the mouth and lungs...
Choking, seizing, swallowing poison as you drown
Fight, kick, reach for surface as you drown
Conditions overwhelming
What once gave life now brings death
In a sea of suffering you drown
In a moment of hope, you start to see the light... a helping hand reaching beneath
Then a moment of fear overcomes your life as you realize the damage has been done
Save yourself
The game is over now
Nature won't allow what burns when it goes down
There is no turning back
Forever fighting...
Forever kicking...
Forever reaching... for the surface as you DROWN
