

Five Iron Frenzy, Blue Mix

In simple English, this is truth so see if this makes sense to you under the guise of Jesus Christ beneath the vibe and all the lights they lie, these spies covered, your eyes
I never knew this was a contest
I guess we lost it long ago

Blue mixes
kick us while we're down, yeah Fixing prices
Sure you say one thing but your actions tell the truth on you

So, blue mix means to weaken sound turns concert halls to battlegrounds Make us pay to go on tour marked up t-shirts to match yours Blind fans, gold mine
you are, dollar signs
And when did this become a contest?
I guess we lost it long ago

You are responsible to watch what you buy these bands that you love pull the wool over your eyes
So watch them
Watch us
watch them
