FKA twigs, Glass & Patron

Whisper in tongues
Hit me with your hands
Double knot my throat, mother
/2x

In words I lose Don't be mad Advocating every second, every minute To my mind it's so sweet And I wish you could see it

I'll be home soon I'll be there

Do you have a lighter?
Am I dancing sexy yet?
Are you watching me cause I move alone?

Look a little harder Everything I hold is wet And I've never tasted glass and patron

I wait all week for a moment's Break away from being told who I am

So do you have a lighter? Am I dancing sexy yet? I can't wait to make your body my own

1, 2, 3... Now hold that pose for me /2x

Do you have a lighter?
Am I dancing sexy yet?
Are you watching me cause I move alone?

Look a little harder Shut your eyes and feel the rush Will you fuck me while I stare at the sun?

We, we, all we do Yeah, girls talk When you've got a front row seat to this dance

Do you have a lighter? Am I dancing sexy yet? Cause I've never tasted glass and patron

1, 2, 3... Now hold that pose for me /2x

Know what you want, what you need But only when you're tasting doubt Plead yourself to rise from ashes built from lustin' for it You are phoenix, you are fire, you are everything I just want for you to love me

Nature plays a wicked game Swallow spartans for the pain Let her hold him to his chest

Hold that pose /xx

Know what you want, what you need But only when you're tasting doubt Plead yourself to rise from ashes built from lustin' for it You are phoenix, you are fire, you are everything I just want for you to love me

1, 2, 3... Now hold that pose for me /2x

Now hold that pose for me /3x
