

FKA twigs, jealousy (feat. Rema)

I just wanna go outside and feel the sun is shinin' on my better side
I've not always had my way, but I forgive my sins
Yeah baby, that's okay
Jealousy you put on me
You're in your feelings way too deep
Jealousy you put on me
That's why your mind's out, mind's out, why?
Jealousy you put on me
You're in your feelings way too deep
Jealousy you put on me
That's why your mind's out, mind's out, why?

Girly, take it easy, take it slow
You follow me everywhere that I go
I gave you the keys to my soul
Now you still don't believe, baby, I know
Girl, I'm sick and tired of your drama
Don't let me take you back to your mama
Twenty missed calls 'cause I'm not home
What you gonna do, only God knows

Jealousy you put on me
You're in your feelings way too deep
Jealousy you put on me
That's why your mind's out, mind's out, why? (Fuck it)
Jealousy you put on me
You're in your feelings way too deep
Jealousy you put on me
That's why your mind's out, mind's out, why?

Waves of motion, moving in my life
Waves of motion, moving in my-
I want it all for my life
All the things I like, yeah
I'm living true
Knowing that I'm better off without your blue

I just wanna go outside and feel the sun is shinin' on my better side (Oh-oh)
I've not always had my way but I forgive my sins
Yeah baby, that's okay
Jealousy you put on me
You're in your feelings way too deep
(Why you wanna do me like that?)
Jealousy you put on me
That's why your mind's out, mind's out, why?
Jealousy you put on me
You and your feelings way too deep
(Why you wanna do me like that?)
Jealousy you put on me
That's why your mind's out, mind's out, why?

Put on me, that's why your mind's out
Put on me, that's why your mind's out
Why? Eyes, eyes
Jealousy you put on me
Put on me, that's why your mind's out
Put on me, that's why your mind's out
Why? Eye, eyes
