

Flogging Molly, Laura

Feel the words from my lips, see your hearts fingertip, and you know were I come from,
cause I know, yes i know, everything there is to know, cause I've lost everything I've had...

See I,
I could have danced on the sun,
but my world came un-done...

Lauraaaaa

There's no need for tears, cause there's no need to cry,
A love that you leave Shall never be denied, a pain in my head,
escaped from my heart, no woman alive could touch who you were

So bye bye Laura,
There's no one to take your place,
Bye bye Laura,
Your beauty will never fade,

They'll say that's your song,
And reach for the sky,
The river is gone,
And everyone cried,
and after the song,
a spirit lives on,
Though your not around,
You'll never be gone,

So bye bye Laura,
There's no one to take your place,
Bye bye Laura,
Your beauty will never fade,

But I,
I could have danced on the sun
but but my world came un-done lauuuura

And I,
I could have danced on the sun
but but my world came un-done
Bye bye lauraa....

So bye bye Laura,
There's no one to take your place,
Bye bye Laura,
Your beauty will never fade,

So bye bye Laura,
There's no one to take your place,
Bye bye Laura,
Your beauty will never fade,
fade!
