

Florence & The Machine, Too Much Is Never Enough

The crown it weighs heavy
Till it's leads on my eyelids
Retreating in cover and closing the curtains
One thing's for certain,
A year like this passes so strangely
Somewhere between sorrow and bliss

Who decides from where up high?
I couldn't say: "I need more time"
Grant that I can stay the night
Or one more day inside this life

Too much /5x
Never enough
/4x
Never enough

You're wondrous [?]
Coming up who we are
Cause I'm retreating in covers and closing the curtains
One thing's for certain,
A year like this passes so strangely
Somewhere between sorrow and bliss

Who decides from where up high?
I couldn't say: "I need more time"
Grant that I can stay the night
Or one more day inside this life

Too much /5x
Never enough
/4x

And who cares about the thing I did that night?
So what?
Maybe Luna had it right?
And who cares if I'm coming back alive?
So what?
At least I have the strength to fight

Too much /5x
Never enough
/4x
Never enough
