

Foals, Wake Me Up

I'm walking through a dream
I'm walking through the finest place I've ever seen.
Hey man, won't you Wake Me Up?
Hey man, won't you Wake Me Up?

I'm walking through the fire
Defiant on the wire, burning up my desire
Hey man won't you come, come give me a gun?
help me blow the lights right out of the sun

So won't you tell me if I'm dreaming?
I need to know just where I stand.
It turns out my hands are useless
But maybe I'm a better man.

Wake Me Up!
I said: Wake Me Up!

I'm dancing on the screens
I'm dancing in the mountains where I've always been.
Hey man, won't you Wake Me Up?
Hey man, won't you Wake Me Up?

I'm kicking down the doors
I'm climbing up the walls of the house that's yours
Hey man, won't you come, come give me a gun?
Help me blow the lights right out of the sun

So won't you tell me if I'm dreaming?
I need to know just where I stand.
It turns out my hands are useless
But maybe I'm a better man.

Wake Me Up!
I said: Wake Me Up!
