

Foo Fighters, Waiting On A War

I've been waiting on a war since i was young
Since i was a little boy with a toy gun
Never really wanted to be a numer one
Just wanted to love everyone

Is there more to do this than that?
Is there more to do this than that?
Is there more to do this than that?
Is there more to do than?
Just waiting on a war?

Everyday waiting for the sky to fall
Big crash on a world that's so small
Just a boy with nowhere left to go
Fell in love with a voice on the radio

Is there more to do this than that?
Is there more to do this than that?
Is there more to do this than that?
Is there more to do than?
Just waiting on a war?
