Fool's Garden, Cook It A While

Monday morning stormy weather Afternoon its getting better Evening, the sun comes out a while

Everything is changing ,baby Nothing stays the same and maybe You will understand it .

Baby, let me tell you something I really dont need anything The cookie is dry!
Baby, this is not a secret I need another liquid and then I Cook it a while.
Yes I am far away from home And though I listen to the Beatles I am a rolling stone.
Yes I am far away from home Just let me tell you something Before Im gone.

I dont like the fish youre cooking I dont like the way youre looking Dont you see it makes me nuts

Baby, let me tell you something I really dont need anything The cookie is dry!
Baby, this is not a secret I need another liquid and then I Cook it a while.
Yes I am far away from home And though I listen to the Beatles I am a rolling stone.
Yes I am far away from home Just let me tell you something Before Im gone.

I did not really mean what I said Im an idiot and you know that I will always love you please dont go.
