

Fool's Garden, Ordinary Man

Who you gonna be?
The owner of the moon,
A soon forgotten hero with a never fading bloom.
Who you wanna be?
When you realize you're failing all the time,
Who you wanna be?

Where do you wanna go?
When you leave your past behind,
When you move yourself in circles
and there's nothing left to find.
Where do you wanna go?
When you feel there's nothing left for you to do.

Who you wanna be?
In a world of sad and loneliness.
Who you wanna be?
When you're full of all the emptiness,
Who you wanna be?
When the moon is on the wane,
An ordinary....

Man got a ticket for the life to come,
You will attain the land a day
Man what you wanna take along
Don't you know the price you pay
For your greedy thoughts,
Your pretty gods,
You give yourself away,
Who you wanna be?
Where you wanna go?

Mr. Mirror don't tell me what you see,
I'm a content man,
In a modern world,
That's all I want to be.
Why should i go to a place I never wanted to belong?

I don't wanna be in a world of sad and loneliness,
I don't wanna be the fool of all the emptiness,
I don't wanna be a shadow in the rain,
An ordinary man...
