

For All Those Sleeping, I'm Not Dead Yet

Slow down my chest can't keep up
With the rate that you're moving
Now we're moving

Deeper and deeper
Now we're falling
Faster and faster
There's nothing left

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so real
Your eyes speak so clearly
I heard every word you said
Your words are so deadly
But I'm not dead yet

You can't seem to hide what's inside
Can't seem to hide what's inside

Deeper and deeper
Now we're falling
Faster and faster

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so real
Your eyes speak so clearly
I heard every word you said
Your words are so deadly

Let's shake things up
Shake things up

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so real
Your eyes speak so clearly
I heard every word you said
Your words are so deadly
But I'm not dead yet
