

FOR I AM KING, The Crone

They took what was most precious
An outrage fueled by misunderstanding
I was never to blame, though I paid the highest price
Now vengeance will be mine

I will not rest
This is retaliation
Until justice is served

Annihilation, my name, beyond imagination
You will repay as I take them all to hell

There will never be a safe space
I am everywhere, I am the ghost that ends your life
Ends your life

Obliteration of the innocent
Watch your life in ruins
Devastation of the powerless
I will never rest
