

Foreigner, Until The End Of Time

When I was young
And the world belonged to me
I thought that love
Meant pain and jealousy

It was a cross on my shoulder
Oh Lord, now I feel so much older
Woo, woo

Time had a way
Of making me see
My lonely life
Has taken its toll on me

Now I feel the emptiness
And I don't want to live like this

Now I've heard stories
I've heard songs
Telling me believe my heart
Don't wait too long
With words that don't ring true
Until there was you

Never will I lose this heart's desire
Ever will I feed our love's fire
Only when I know that you'll be mine
Until the end of time

How do I trust
What I'm beginning to feel?
And how deep my soul
How much can I reveal?

I'm lost in life's mystery
I'm caught between time and eternity

Now there's a door that opens wide
Slowly I will find my way and reach inside
I couldn't make it through
Until there was you

Never will I lose this heart's desire
Ever will I feed our love's fire
Only when I know that you'll be mine
And only when I see the light of love shine
Until the end of time

Never will I lose this heart's desire
Ever will I feed our love's fire
only when I know that you'll be mine
and only when I see the light of love shine

Never will I lose this heart's desire
Ever will I feed our love's fire
And when I see the light of love shine
In your eyes
When they meet mine

Only when I know that you and I
Until the end of time
