

Frank Bakken, Old Man's Thoughts

I am looking in the mirror an old man looking back at me the years they went so fast Ill never get them back

good and bad I keep them in my heart

Oh cant you see my friend time just flies away for us

I am looking at her picture how wonderful she was the years we spent together the best days of my life

time just flied away for us
