

Franz Ferdinand, Right Action

I come home, practically all is nearly forgiven
Right thoughts, right plans, right action
Almost everything could be forgotten

How can we leave you to a Saturday night
On a Sunday morning,
Good morning

But sometimes, wish you were here, weather permitting
This time, same as before, I'll love you forever

How can we leave you to a Saturday night
On a Sunday morning,
Good morning

Sometimes, wish you were here, weather permitting
Right thoughts, right plans, right action /4x
Right now
