Freemasons feat. Wynter Gordon, Believer

Right now if i was a fortune teller i could see beyond the stars the cards would have a picture with your face on it.

I see signs, everything leads to you i'm walking in your direction im feelin' this new sensation. Yea'

You, taste like hunger, you, feel like urgency you make me wonder, you sound so good to me.

So if im in love, if i'm alive make me a believer before i leave here tonight, make me a believer.

Ouh uh uah ah ah i'm a believer (2x)

now i, oh i yeah (2x)

Over time, its not a trust selection we exist to love but love is not perfection, still we try.

You, taste like hunger, you feel like urgency you make me wonder, you sound so good to me.

So if im in love, if i'm alive make me a believer before i leave here tonight, make me a believer.

Ouh uh uah ah ah im a believer (2x)

Now i, oh i yeah (2x)

When the feeling comes strong you've just got to hold on gotta live it up you've been waiting too long there's no turning back now throw your passion to the ground i can see you and(?) you the believer

So if im in love, if i'm alive make me a believer before i leave you here tonight, make me a believer.

Ouh uh uah ah ah im a believer (2x)
