

From Zero, The Other Side

I'm the one you're waiting for Yes I'm the one Yes I'm the one
Who decides when times aren't right?
Who's left out - well I'm left out Don't try
Just leave it
It's all bitter change Can't we stay the same and give it all back to fall setting the course for an ever after Standing tall be my all
setting the course for an ever after
I want to be, I want to be I'll never walk alone
when time is on my side What comes around goes around in time, in time
She's the only time spent right
Let's talk it out
We'll talk it out
'cause I'm the one you're waiting for Yes I'm the one Yes I'm the one
I don't believe it's right.
And all the answers will never keep me warm at night
when I am by myself
Back on the run
Enraged with the other side Deliver us all from dreams that I want to hide
Back on the run
It's safe just to be alive Consider the one that's left on the other side
I want to be, I want to be Everything else that grabs when you're under I'll always win alone let alone
Give it all back to fall
Standing tall be my all
Setting the course for an ever after
I'll never walk alone
when time is on my side.
I don't believe in fright
You know the others will Never keep me warm at night
When I am by myself
