

Frozen Crown, Far Beyond

Who we are
I am guessing who we are?
We're just a spark
Of thousand millions stars

Through days we burn
Till we fall
And it's too late, too far

The flight for your life
During this everlasting flight
Preach against the night
And never be afraid of time

Far beyond the clouds
We'll fly high
Up to the sky with no return
Leave your traces of light
And its never ending bright
Inside your eyes
Dreams await to come to life
