

Fury In The Slaughterhouse, La La La La La

she is one of those downtown rats living with mummy in a cheesy flat brother's in the army and daddy's pissed off but she forgets it all when she takes her clothes off

I'll buy you flowers instead of a ring I won't go to church cause I can't sing but if take me baby I'll tell you what I'll do every night I'll croak a special lullaby for you lalalalala sleep well honey...

I know your daddy wants you to stay at home so fill up his mouth with his shaving foam let's go out for a ride in a brand new car I haven't got a license but don't tell it to your ma I'm not afraid of your brother, even if he turns red cause I'm bigger than him, so I spit on his head but if you take me baby I'll tell you what I'll do every night I'll croak a special lullaby for you

lalalalala sleep well honey...

you can even take my money
