

Future, All Right

All right, all right
Love, love, love, all right

You know I be gettin' that moolah on a daily basis, all right
You say you always be there for me baby, you say "all right"
I know my niggas gon' be there for me always, all right
Hit the club, pop a few bottles, and fuck a few models, all right
We been on molly, yeah, we been on Xans
And we been here all night
She says she wanna have a water bath, I told her "all right"

Hermes, Celines, and Chanel's, you gon' tote 'em
I spend stacks on my rings, I spend stacks on my Rollies
Called out that bogus, get called out, that bogus
I drop off a head on the Royce, it was loaded
Sittin' in the parkin' lot holdin' the 40
Smokin' this dodie, I'm drowned in this Codeine
Diamonds shinin' to infinity
I got 10 rings like it's 10 of me
I got money, fame, I got enemies
I can feel the pain of my enemy
I been downin' Percocets with Hennessy
I can hear the hood sayin' they proud of me
I can hear my bitch say she proud of me
Gave her two Xans now she proud of me
Gave her two Xans now she proud of me
I can hear my hood sayin' they proud of me

You know I be gettin' that moolah on a daily basis, all right
You say you always be there for me baby, you say "all right"
I know my niggas gon' be there for me always, all right
Hit the club, pop a few bottles, and fuck a few models, all right
We been on molly, yeah, we been on Xans
And we been here all night
She says she wanna have a water bath, I told her "all right"

(Esco and Boomin, they got it on smash)
