

Future, Used to This (ft. Drake)

Mexico, working like I'm Mexicano
New persona, we're moving on from Ferragamo
Get the llama, I party with the real Madonna
Beat the odds, do numbers and remain humble
Drop-top Porsches, I'm so used to this
Stop out the pound, I'm so used to this
I know where I'm from and I got used to this
Mansion in the hills, I got used to this

Stack of booty bitches, I got used to this There's Iceland in my wrist, I done got used to this Tropicana bitches, I got all kinda flavors
Selling dope all my life, I can't do minimum wage
Dirty-dirty money, I got used to this
I give you my whole heart till there ain't nothing to give
You know how far we came if you know where we been
How many niggas you know can just hop in the Benz?
Be honest to yourself, don't you ever pretend
Don't ever play yourself, know when it all begins
I had to put my back against the wall
Tell me that I don't deserve to ball

Mexico, working like I'm Mexicano
New persona, we're moving on from Ferragamo
Get the llama, I party with the real Madonna
Beat the odds, do numbers and remain humble
Drop-top Porsches, I'm so used to this
Stop out the pound, I'm so used to this
I know where I'm from and I got used to this
Mansion in the hills, I got used to this

Lambo come alive man, I'm used to this
No one looks surprised, coz we used to this
I'm make sure that we get used to this
Treat my brother's kids like they one of my kids
Never looking back on it, we did what we did
Could never find the time for the people I miss
Thought they had my back against the wall
Tell me that I don't deserve to ball...

Well, then tell me who deserve it
Eyes getting low but I'm still observing
I see you lurking
Never see me out in person
I'm always working
Money on your head if you make a nigga nervous
Never made a move out here unless I was certain
Tatted on me, but this shit is deeper than the surface
I'm with everyone that I was here with in the first place
Making sure that they all good before they close the curtain

Mexico, working like I'm Mexicano
New persona, we're moving on from Ferragamo
Get the llama, I party with the real Madonna
Beat the odds, do numbers and remain humble
Drop-top Porsches, I'm so used to this
Stop out the pound, I'm so used to this
I know where I'm from and I got used to this
Mansion in the hills, I got used to this
