

G-Eazy, Break From LA Freestyle

I don't wanna do this
Been paving a way
None of my friends or family walk this way
Feel one alone
You and i are the same in this way
I vent
But nobody wants to hear me complaining today

Fuck,
Maybe i need a break for L.A.
The magnetism makes it difficult stayin' away
It's always something
And i know this sound crazy to say
The fact is ever since i've been breakin' away

Beautiful girl
You move in an angelic way
But i can't lie to you just to make you OK
So, stay away
Trust me, it'll be safet this way
Your heart is fragile
And i am not tryna break it today
