

(G)I-DLE, HWAA

As if in the dead of winter
The time has completely frozen
Which seems to be left by the cruel world
The darkness deepens

Shall break out
From the endless season with no promise
Shall erase
The scars solely burnt
From the days we were not in love

I shall ignite a fire
So that my tears dwelling inside
Won't live any longer

I shall make a fire
A bigger fire
To win back spring that i've lost

The cold wind
And the heart covered in white snow
May please melt completely
When teh morning comes

Light up a fire

Fire (HWAA)
Burn burn
Fire (HWAA)
Shal bloom a flower
Fire (HWAA)
Burn burn
Fire (HWAA)
Shal bloom a flower
