

Gabrielle, Alone

Too many times
You let me down when I needed you
You could not be found
So I picked up the pieces
And tried to mend my broken heart
Then you'd reappear
Always acting like nothing was wrong
Everything's just fine
Want us to get back together
Get back into my life
Cos I don't mind where you go
Please don't come around
Or call this your home
Cos I don't where you go
As long as you're not here
Baby Baby Babe
What did you think I'd say
That I'd take you back again
Oh baby I've changed
Now you say
You can't believe it
How can I close the doors on you
Could it be that you're forgotten
That you treated me so cruel
You made your choice
Cos you stayed away
For much too long
Now it's way too late
Did you want me to sit around and wait
Like I've always done
Cos I don't mind...
Baby Baby Babe...
You've always got what you wanted
You knew I'd always oblige
I'd always keep the door open
Waiting for you to decide
Cos too many times
You've let me down
When I needed you
You could not be found
So I picked up the pieces
Tried to mend my broken heart
Cos I don't mind....
