

Gaia Epicus, Gods Of Metal

Fast as a shark runs the crazy train
We're breaking the law that's for sure
Once you have found the ace of spades
Was poison really the cure?

Burn, Burn, Burn High
Raise up your horns and Scream
Dream evil was never a dream

Gods of metal
They'll be coming for you in the night
Gods of metal
With thunder and lightning they strike
Gods of metal
You can hear their whips and their chains
Gods of metal
On their horses of steel they will ride

Seek and destroy and then run to the hills
A sanctuary is what we need
The trooper is brave and he's ready to jump
But his inner self cannot breath

The Master of puppets will bark at the moon
His metal heart's beating fast
Tear down the walls of Jericho
The Perfect strangers will meet there at last
