

GAYLE, e-z (feat. UPSAHL & Blu DeTiger) my best friend loved my ex boyfriend now his best friend hits me up when i post things for attention we all need an intervention cause ride or dies turn to sex and lies no we don't commit to much we're power tripping loving it cause that's the way we do it we glorify our problems but we never solve em were too busy acting like we know too much faking love and messing up our friendships we don't feel connected were too busy losing touch and losing sleep we make it look eas-- z

i do my best to get it off my chest but they never know what I mean all i wanna do it please people but they're killing me got me crying over nothing but at least I know that I'm hot i'm trying to live for something but really I don't know what cause nothing's gonna please me no one's gonna reach me young and dumb and needy making it look easy

ooh
we don't trust
noo
one cause we don't wanna work on it we rather sit and

faking love and messing up our friendships
losing touch and losing sleep

ooooh nah nah nah nah nah nah (please)

ooh
nah nah nah nah nah nah
(please)

glorify our problems but we never solve em were to busy acting like know too faking love and messing up our friendships
