

GAYLE, luv starved

i was never shown how to love so i did my best to guess everything a man every wants a tiny girl in a dress a trophy for his friends (that I didn't even like so) tried to learn from mistakes i haven't made one in months but it's getting harder to take pushing away everyone and you just had to show up (and yeah I'm not mad about it) swear to god imma change but I'm agnostic all this loneliness is getting so exhausting sick to my stomach yeah i'm feeling kind of nauseous and I can't tell if it's you

i'm so luv starved
knowing if i'm ready to trust you is just so hard you're picking at skin and bones i feel my lips they turn to blue are you great or something new
i'm so luv starved
are you actually my type or do i just need a bite?

is it the fact that you're there or do i actually care the potential of the latter's got me pulling my hair out i'm a skeleton of the love I once had yeah it was so bad but you're nothing like that

all this loneliness is getting so exhausting
sick to my stomach yeah i'm feeling kind of nauseous
and I can't tell if it's you

knowing if I'm ready to trust you is just so hard
are you actually my type or do i just need a bite?

oh oh
i'm sick of being taken advantage of by stupid guys
oh oh
tell me if you're one of them I'm losing my mind
oh oh
are you feeding me affection or just a bunch of lies is it me is it you i don't really got a clue i don't got much left but i might give it all to you luv starved

knowing if I'm ready to trust you is just so hard
