

GAYLE, sleeping with my friends got to separate my sexual attraction from my loneliness yeah it's a chain reaction

i
i know
should go to a therapist cause it keeps happening used to be funny but now i stopped laughing

i know
that i should stop my

million mistakes in a pretty little bow say i'm tired
spend the night
we know where it's gonna go say we'll take it slow

i really need to stop sleeping with my friends romanticize everything in my head we mess around for a weekend and never see them again
always leaves me having to pretend then i mess around for a weekend
and never see them again always ending up feeling like i'm a trophy on the top shelf with nobody left to hold me

friends (e e e ends)
friends (e e ends)
mess around for a weekend

friends
