

Gene Clark, All I Want

I&#039;ve been counted now as this lonely lover
And it&#039;s all because of you
I ain&#039;t slept a wink since you left me baby
I ain&#039;t had nothing but bad since you said we were through, &#039;cause

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

Believe me I don&#039;t find one thing funny
&#039;Bout the things you say that you&#039;re gonna do
You know it ain&#039;t got nothing to do with money
All it&#039;s got to do with is how I feel about you, &#039;cause

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

I know that you know a million Casanovas, lover
And you know that I know a million bitches too
But there ain&#039;t a hundred of them gonna snow you under
Or blow your cover or make you feel blue

SOLO

I hope I see your face come Monday morning
I&#039;ve got to lose these sideway blues
And don&#039;t you ever leave me again without warning
Next time it&#039;ll be my mind that I am going to lose, &#039;cause

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you, hold you

All I want is your love
(It&#039;s all I really want to do)
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

All I want is your love
All I want is your kiss
All I want is to hold you

I know you hurt and cry

&#039;Cause you know all I want is you
