

Genesis, Hey!

I'll tell you the story
Of how my life ran
Well, at first it was easy
But it finished so hard

Hey! You started me going
Hey! I was so happy
Hey! You started a going inside me
I need your love right now

Promises broken
The things I believed in
You were so nice, girl
And I couldn't see through it

Hey! You ended my happiness
Hey! You needed my love
Hey! You ruined the world I was planning
Hey! You left it all too late

Hey! It's all over now
Hey! You want to apologise
Hey! Well look at me, hundreds of pieces
Why did you lead me on?

Hey! It's all over now
Hey! You want to apologise
Hey! Well look at me, hundreds of pieces
Hey! Why did you lead me on, girl?
Hey! You ought to apologise
[fade out]
