

Gerry Beckley, Kiss Of Life

There will be no more confusion
There will be no more ball and chain
I will cease with the illusions
And I will ask of you the same

When you love someone
It's gonna take some time

Come on and save me, save me
Pull me from deep water
Give the kiss of life
Now is the moment treasured
Breathe the kiss of life
Into the words we speak, into the words we speak

And coming across the meadow
Like a slow moving train

Long determination
Will forever remain

When you love someone
It's gonna take some time

Come on and save me, save me
Pull me from deep water
Give the kiss of life
Now is the moment treasured
Breathe the kiss of life
Into the words we speak, into the words we speak

Give the kiss, give the kiss of life
Give the kiss, give the kiss of life
Save me ...
