

GFRIEND (GFRIEND), Crossroads (Crossroads)

unfurling singing stars will you hear it?

time is at a standstill standing on this road can't believe it yet I took it all for granted

I saw just like you I wanted just like you why does my heart fall apart?

even the wind pauses waiting for you still even the fluttering starling lingering on

no, everything is still filled with you I still can't go anywhere even if you pass me by
I will find you
then I'll reach out again to you

will it reach you?
sparkling singing stars will you see it too?

maybe this song
will take me to you once again I know so, wait, calm down I don't know anything lost in longing I'm standing still going back and forth

lingering on

no, everything is still filled with you
I will find you
