

Ghost B.C., If You Have Ghosts

If you have ghosts
Than you have everything
If you have ghosts
Than you have everything

You can say anything you want and you can do anything you want

If you have ghosts
Than you have everything

One never does that One never does that

You can call it Surprise there it is

The moon to the left of me
is a part of my thoughts
is a part of me is me

one never does that

in the night I am real
in the night I am real

is a part of me is me

Wherever is the wind
is a part of my thoughts
is a part of me is me

In the night I am real

I don't want me
fangs too long

I don't want my
fangs too long

is a part of me is me

Forever is the wind
to the left of me
is a part of my thoughts

I don't want my
fangs too long

If you have ghosts
than you have everything
