

Ghost, Hunter's Moon

It's been a long time coming
I'm coming back for you, my friend
To where we'd hide as children
I'm coming back for you, my friend

Though my memories have faded
They come back to haunt me once again
And though my mind is somewhat jaded now
It's time for me to strike again
Tonight, it's a Hunter's Moon

Under a headstone, sister
I am dying to see you, my friend
Back in the old cementary
I am dying to see you, my friend

Though my memories have faded
They come back to haunt me once again
And though my mind is somewhat jaded now
It's time for me to strike again
Tonight, it's a Hunter's Moon

I am coming
I am dying
To see you one last time
Together...

Though my memories have faded
They come back to haunt me once again
And though my mind is somewhat jaded now
It's time for me to strike again
Tonight, it's a Hunter's Moon
