

Ghost Machine, Siesta Loca

I think I'd be better off alone locked away inside a room without any doors Is this really what i was meant to be is this really all there is for me someone tell me that theres something more then this could i be better off asleep the small hand slowly ticks a way reminding me again that its just a passing phase a cigarette to calm my nerves anything to pass the time and passify the hurt

Someone wake me when this is over Someone tell me when this is over
