

Glenn Hughes, Gone

In a dream I had a final vision
How come u just want 2 be my friend? how come?
Will u ever have 2 justify the hidden meaning in your time again? how Come?

I'm gone, gone, just like the past
Because I'm gone, and u won't be the last cause I'll be strong, now u can hear my voice
Because I'm gone

In an ordinary conversation, I come 2 my realization
Then u come 2 me with velvet skin
How come I did let u in?

I'm gone, gone, just like the past
Because I'm gone, and u won't be the last
cause I'll be strong, now u can hear my voice
Because I'm gone

Still it breaks me down, inside
As I walk through the fire
I am a chosen man
Nothing can change me at all

I'm gone, gone, just like the past
Because I'm gone, and u won't be the last
cause I'll be strong, now u can hear my voice
Because I'm gone

I'm gone, gone, just like the past
Because I'm gone, and u won't be the last
cause I'll be strong, now u can hear my voice
Because I'm gone

You lie, u lie
Nothing will change u
