Gloria Estefan, Time Waits

Time gave me a window to be here Time made me some space Allowed me... entry

Blink, children have grown They're on their own Years, swift as a day Before you know Go blazing away

[Chorus:]
I'll live like forever is now
Because time waits for no one
And tomorrow just may not come 'round
Because time waits for no one
When we're gone
Only love goes on

Time, its seamless illusion seduced me Time, to show me the ropes Enticed me To waste it

But truth is much better seen Within our dreams Life's infinite thread Unraveling Then starting again...

[Chorus]

Time waits for no one it all seems to happen So fast (Time won't wait, oh no)
No end, no beginning. I'll live like each moment's The last (Time won't wait, oh no)
Just when it's over the journey has merely begun (Time won't wait, oh no)
No you, no me, in the end there is only the one (Time won't wait, oh no)
