

Gloryhammer, Magic Dragon

Riding my steel into faraway lands searching for dragon to claim back the throne into the forests of deepest Strathclyde where time no centuries has been foretold

A mighty warrior questing to valleys unknown

A village of wizards revealed my the way they saw it by searching a magical ball enchanted chamber with mirror and fire defeat it and dragon would be the reward the be the chosen one a hero must rise to the rest

Demon attacked me but then it was slain the dragon appeared and a battle was fight I spoke from the words of a powerful scroll and magical dragon became now allied Mighty and glorios he flies through the emerald skies

Magic dragon casting a spell on the mountains covering wizards in glory flying through majestic skies searching for mighty powers to defeat ultimate evil ride on the wings of a dragon
questing for the steel
