

Go:Audio, Forget About It

Stay awake, we've got all we need our hearts skipped a beat tonight.

Everytime that we started to somethings always in our way for now.

Forget about it,
forget about it.

It's getting late I'm far away from home but I've been misplaced a thousand times before.

Kid yourself that it's never you, how many times can coincidence be true?

Forget about it,
forget about it.

Waiting for a moment that is quiet trying to make out what you say I'll wait.

Hearing things just at the wrong time shadows move in doorway light for now.

Forget about it,
forget about it.
