

Gojira, Born For One Thing

Mortal, spawn on te altar Caught in the heart of the blaze
The primal fear of disappearing Becoming a ghost in the void death

give a price, put a name non of it real in this matter wanderinf, distracting wishing the life of another self

we were born for one thing tame the greatest fear of all we were bron for onr thing born to face the greatest fear of all we're all drawn into ourselves in a collective coma remember gazing up for answer but now we're standing down al lis blur in the mase we put an end to all

we're no one united
when we we're gone
