

Gojira, Into The Storm

Say something about awakening
The rebellion you felt before
Wake, change your course
Laws will follow
Restart, reactive the core

Rise!

You come out
You're awake now
Put your fist in the air
You were hiding
Now you throw yourself into the storm

Flames

Gather your strength
Raise your eyes
Fear not the demons
You're up against*
