

Gojira, L'Enfant Sauvage

So long I've been trying to match
It doesn't work
I'm trying I don't know
The apparition of this world
I dragged you to it

I've killed another man
I was raging
The pain is gone
The denial
I've run away from institutions
I own myself, life

There's no way
There is light in this world I fight for
The reason you won't leave this cage
Betray your child
The desire that you won't serve to reveal yourself
Forgot to create your own life
