Golden Earring, Jane Jane

From the Album: * The hole

She weighs her words on a silver tongue While she cradles the phone Moves through the room I can hear her lightin' a cigarette But so far she said nothin' yet Oh - they say that your love is poison I think that it's just uncommon Jane Jane There's a dark side to you that turns me on I wish I knew where it's commin' from You're like a spanish dancer on a T.V. set You hide a rattlesnake under your dress They say that your love is poison I say that it's just uncommon Jane Jane - don't make the same mistake again Jane Jane - don't break the chain That ties you to my heart Jane Jane listen babe It's not a game anymore I'm gonna throw myself in a wishing well I'm gonna go spindizzy on a carrousel Gonna gonna drown myself in the pourin' rain And wash up on some far away shore again They say that your love is poison I can't do without it darlin' Jane Jane - don't make the same mistake again Jane Jane - don't break the chain That ties you to my heart Jane Jane Jane you've gotta listen to me babe Jane Jane Oh Jane - you've gotta start makin' sense baby Jane It's not a game it's not a game anymore...... Don't you know that we've gotta change Jane Jane
