Goldfrapp, Fondue Knight

(Unreleased Felt Mountain b-side)

A fondue knight On a winters day I do in snow In summer rain Dont let it go Dont blow away This could so sweet On a different day Those umbrellas in the sea And they tremble like a distant star They are for plays Waiting for you Feel so small Underneath this sky This dirty pornstar Isnt big enough Dont let it go Dont blow away This could be so sweet On a different day Those umbrellas in the sea And they tremble like a distant star They are folding Just for you
