

Goo Goo Dolls, War

Love
Look at the two of us
Drifting apart it seems
Caught in a lonely dream

Now
Twisted and torn again
Out on the edge we've been
Can you just pull me in?

And fear begins to cloud your face
And common ground starts to break
You say you love me anyway
And I do

And it's war
Yeah, it's war
I can't escape
I'm up in flames
Can't live without you

And it's war
Yeah, it's war
Love is the pain
Call me by name
Can't live without you

Now
Now I'm surrendering
Hold up these empty hands
Don't shoot me down again

And how
How does a fool begin
Something he'll never win?
Tell me 'cause I don't know

And it's war
Yeah, it's war
I can't escape
I'm up in flames
Can't live without you

And it's war
Yeah, it's war
Love is the pain
Call me by name
Can't live without you

I'm not the enemy
But darling I do believe
You'll be the end of me
Can't let you go

It's the sound of fear
The sound of joy
The sound of life
Inside the noise

The sweetest sound is still your voice
And it's ringing in my head

And in the end just take my hand
Hold me close and understand

That all our hurt and all our pain
Is forgiven

And it's war
Yeah, it's war
I can't escape
I'm up in flames
Can't live without you

It's war
Yeah, it's war
Love is the pain
Call out my name
Can't live without you
